7.3.P. PASSAGE CONTROLE – TIMETABLE CONTROLS – DISQUALIFICATION

7.3.17p New start after retirement.

Any crew having abandoned, or disqualified for a delay greater than the maximum authorized between two time controls, at the end of the section or at the end of the stage, may rejoin the rally from the start of the following stage.

However, if the crew does not intend to re-enter the rally, it must inform the Clerk of the Course by completing the form located on the back of the road book ("final retirement"). The crew must submit the form to Race Direction as soon as possible and, if practicable, before the publication of the restart list.

He may re-enter the rally only after having successfully submitted his car to scrutineering by the scrutineers within a time slot set by the organizer, indicated in the special regulations.

For the leg where the retirement or disqualification has been pronounced, a crew re-entering the rally will be assigned a 10-minute penalty for each Special Stage not completed or not carried out. This time penalty will be added to the best time obtained in his class. If a crew is alone in its class, the College of Sporting Stewards will award it a time judged to be the fairest.

If the retirement takes place after the last Special Stage of the stage, the crew will however be considered as having retired during this last Special Stage. From then on, a penalty of 10 minutes will be added to his time achieved in this one.

Crews returning to the rally will not be entitled to any prize or allocation of points, with the exception of any bonus points (start, finish).

As soon as the College of Stewards has dealt with any requests for repositioning of competitors still in the race, competitors returning to the rally as part of the new start will be reclassified by the College of Stewards.

The College of Sporting Stewards may modify this classification method:

- for FIA and FFSA priority drivers,
- for the other drivers according to their performance during the stage.

In any case, the College of Sporting Stewards may at any time withdraw the benefit of this reinstatement in the rally without reason, this decision not being subject to a sporting appeal.

7.5.17.3P. Tow truck – Retirement

The tow trucks set up by the organizer are at the disposal of the Race Director, with the sole aim, if necessary, of clearing the road.

Any intervention of the organization's recovery vehicles made at the request of a competitor or his representative, apart from a decision of the Race Director, is at the competitor's financial expense.

7.5.17.4P : Retirement

In case of retirement, the competitors have the obligation to inform the Race Direction as soon as possible by using the phone number indicated on the information note given at the time of the verifications.

7.6.1P. Closed park

Because of the specificity and the weather constraints of this rally, the installation of a protection on the front windshield of the vehicle, the installation of covers or any other device covering the car will be tolerated in the closed parks.
